

Special Issue of International Real Estate Review (IRER) on

Living with Virus: COVID-19 and Real Estate

The International Real Estate Review invites submissions to the special issue of “Living with Virus: COVID-19 and Real Estate”. The special issue will focus on the how the COVID-19 pandemic has impacted real estate practices and markets. We welcome submissions on specific topics, which may include (but are not limited to):

- Real estate markets in the post-pandemic world
- Real estate capital markets and financial distresses after the COVID-19
- The pandemic shock on housing affordability and housing prices
- Predictive modeling of spatial distributions and spread of the COVID virus
- How various safety measures and lock-down implemented during the pandemic affect real estate professional services, including appraisal, brokerage and online retail businesses?
- Governments’ responses and assistances to real estate markets during and after the COVID-19

Please submit your paper either via IRER online portal or by email to IRER@nus.edu.sg before 31 October 2021.
